Early summer is the perfect time to head to the Iberian Peninsula (and Balearic Islands) before temperatures soar and crowds descend. Here are your favorite picks from the latest Readers' Choice Awards survey for hotels in some of the region's most vibrant cities. And, when you're ready to cool off, explore our favorite beaches from the Atlantic to the Mediterranean.

1. Sant Francesc Hotel Singular, Palma, Mallorca

A renovated 19th-century mansion in the heart of Palma is all about old-meets-new: much of the original features of the building have been preserved including its main staircase, which flows right into the lobby. The hotel is perfectly situated to explore the city's treasures that surround it (these include Mallorca's gothic masterpiece of a cathedral).
