Villas Mallorca: The finest destinations and accommodation for a holiday on the island.

According to tourism analyses, the Germans are very happy to travel to their own country, but Spain, especially Mallorca, is at the top of the ranking when it comes to holidays abroad. The trend is rising. The island is no longer the epitome of tourist fishing. Tradition, craftsmanship and sustainability are the focus of numerous creatives: artists: the island's designers – features that characterise both restaurants and boutiques as well as the hotel scene. The landscape is of course just as dreamlike: while one bay comes to the east, the west adorns itself with charming mountain villages and impressive rocks of the Tramuntana mountains.

Best Hotels Mallorca: This are the 12 staff tips from Sandy beaches, crystal clear water, small boutiques and restaurants – Mallorca is considered a place of longing for many. For all those who are now dreaming – AD reveals the most beautiful destinations and hotels on the island.

1. "Can Ferrereta", Santany

Even from a distance you can see the stately Norfolk pine, which overlooks the city walls of Santanyà and marks the indoor terrace of the Can Ferrereta. The manor house in Carrer de can Ferrereta was in the hands of the Bonets, a prestigious family from Santanyà, then it was for sale in 2018. For the Soldevila Ferrer family, the opportunity to do what they prefer to do: dusting off buildings steeped in history, then polish them up with the greatest respect of their past and thus breathe new life into them. After three years of intensive renovation, the "Can Ferrereta" is now a 5-star hotel with a total of 32 rooms and suites. The original vaults, wooden beams and stone ceilings of the building were carefully uncovered and restored, even the old shepherd's house in the main garden could be restored and now houses the lunch restaurant "La Fresca". Gentle beige-brown and off-white tones run through the premises, in addition to custom-made furniture and design pieces by Piero Lissoni or Hans J. Wegner. The rustic walls and corridors also adorn works curated by the Soldevila Ferrer family especially for the "Can Ferrereta", such as the art by Jaume Plensa, Joan Mirà and Guillem Nadal.

In harmony with the architecture of the city, the rooms are decorated in simple beige and cream tones. Natural fabrics and natural stone floors complement the setting. Can Ferrereta

7. "Sant Francesc", Palma

With the aim of preserving the cultural heritage of old buildings, the Soldevila Ferrer family has opened some exciting hotels in the country in recent years, including the "Villa Soro" in San Sebastián or the "Can Ferrereta" in Santanyà. The third strike is located in Palma, a few metres from the Cathedral of Sant Francesc. In the middle of the 19th century Built in the century as a magnificent manor house, the 5-star hotel "Sant Francesc" was carefully restored under the care of the Soldevila Ferrer family: the former watchtower now serves as a room, the old stables now house the restaurant "Quadrat", and the former well is sweated on the treadmill. The interior is decorated in simple creams and grey tones, custom-made furniture and pieces by Antonio Citterio, Jaime Hayon and Piero Lissoni complement the neoclassical setting. With works by Guillem Nadal, Riera i Aragà and Dominica Sánchez, the old walls serve as a showcase for contemporary art, as in the family's sister hotels. By the way: On the roof terrace you can also be visited as an external guest in the evening – the view over the city is particularly impressive at sunset.

The hotel's rooftop terrace includes a bar and a swimming pool. Sant Francesc
