

HAMPTON LIVING

TRAVEL · JANUARY 23, 2017

Mallorca Hotels

Mallorca is my second home, I spent every school holiday, university break and any time I can find since, on this beautiful island. Getting on the plane to Mallorca always feels like going home, it was in part where I grew up. It is also where my love for the Hamptons style interiors came from. There are so many great interiors / home shops on Mallorca and it was going round these that I realized there was nowhere in the UK that did most of their brands. The idea for Hampton Living was born.

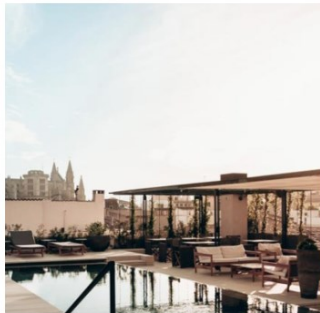

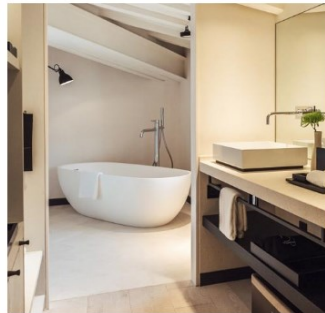

Don't be fooled by the reports of partying and clubbing that the British have become accustomed to hearing about, this island has a whole other side to it and it is, in my opinion, one of the most beautiful places in the world. Not only is the scenery spectacular, the people are some of the most friendly and polite people I have ever met.

So as the nights start to get lighter and we are heading to Spring it's time to start thinking about holidays. Here's my guide on where to stay on Mallorca.

Hotel Sant Francesc

5* Boutique Luxury in the heart of Palma City. Voted Condè Nast Traveller Readers Choice Awards 2016 winner for Spain and Portugal.

The Hotel Sant Francesc is relatively new on the scene in Palma, but has easily placed itself as one of the best not only in the city, but on the island. The decor at this hotel is outstanding from the rooms, to the restaurants, to the stunning lobby.

Not to be missed at this hotel is the rooftop pool where you can enjoy cocktails, champagne, Mediterranean dishes or sushi. There is also the main restaurant Quadrat and the Lobby Bar and terrace. The rooms are superbly elegant and you can have views of the courtyard, gardens or Sant Francesc Square. Privilege rooms and above can come with a balcony so this is worth asking for. The hotel is also equipped with a spa and fitness area. Visit their website by clicking here now.
